1040 CHECKLIST

INCOME

DEDUCTIONS

W-2's 1099's - interest - dividends - capital gains Alimony received Business income and expenses IRA distributions Pension and annuity distributions Rental income and expenses K-1's from partnership and S- Corp. Unemployment compensation Social Security benefits Other Income	Medical expenses (if significant) Taxes paid - Real estate - State Income taxes - Property taxes (Car, etc) Real estate - State Income taxes - Property taxes (Car, etc)Home mortgage interest - Form 1098Points paid Investment interest Contributions - Cash - Property - Clothing
	Childcare expenses ID No. of provider Alimony paid IRA, Roth, SEP & Keogh contrib. Tuition expenses (qualified) Including books Student loan interest

MISCELLANEOUS

Estimated Tax Payments (April, June, September and January)

- Federal include dates paid, amount and check numbers
- State
- Copies of last year tax returns if not prepared by us.
- Property tax bill for CT property tax credit

Dependents social security numbers - required to receive deduction Recently changed names (ie. marriage/divorce) must be updated with Social Security Admin. Sales tax paid on motor vehicles and boats, if not claiming the income tax deduction Contributions to CHET 529 Plan (College Savings)

Education Credits –

- Form 1098-T from each school if issued and complete address of each school
- Amount paid to each institution and any scholarships received.
- Books

Qualifying energy credit purchases

- Windows and doors, Roof and insulation
- Wood and pellet stoves, HVAC and water heaters
- Geothermal heat pumps, solar panels, and fuel cells

Health Insurance Coverage Information

Form 1095-A Health Insurance Marketplace Statement

Required if health insurance was purchased on the exchange.

Visit us at www.stevenhintzcpa.com